AMUSEMENTS

TOM MOORE AT

THE BUTLER TODAY

"The Great Accident," starring Tom Moore, is the picturization of the story which created a sensation when it recently appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. Tom Moore portrays the role of Wint Chase, irresponsible and care-free son of Winthrop Chase, Sr., who is totally unconcerned in the important political campaign his father is waging for the forthcoming mayoralty election of Hardiston. The opposing party had planned to defeat Chase, Sr., and when election day came and the ballots were counted it was found that the majority of voters had written the name of W. Chase, Jr. How did it happen? How did a reckless young scoundrel manage to shake off his sins and proceed to sweep the town clear of crooks and grafters and hypocrites? It was "a great accident."

Added to the program will be a Johnny Hines comedy, "Torchy Comes Through."

Tomorrow, Justice Johnstone in "The Plaything of Broadway," a gripping drama of real life.

Monday, Elmo Lincoln in "Under Crimson Skies."

School Law Amendment Falls Short of Object

his supervisory duties, as laid down by law, and is expected to do all this with the meager expense allowance of $300 per year for Nye county.

The very least time in which this could be accomplished in Nye county is 60 days, and a distance to be covered of approximately 200 miles. No one would ever contend that an automobile could be put over a road in Nevada for less than an average of 25 cents per mile, notwithstanding any argument to the contrary. This is a well-known fact scientifically established. Is the superintendent to furnish his own machine or hire one? Can you compel the superintendent to purchase a machine of his own, or if he hire one, what will be the cost? Then there is the additional expense of necessary meals and lodgings for 60 days, which will mean about $5 per day all of those expenses to be covered by the ridiculous total allowance of $300 a year, to say nothing of office expense, postage, telephone and telegraph tolls.

Even our third grade pupils can figure out that it cannot be done, and whoever drew this bill proves conclusively by it that he knows nothing about our schools or conditions pertaining to the conduct of the same.

Where is the economy? Will either our local superintendent, or the principal of the high school, assume these duties under the conditions laid down? Or if they are willing, would the school board permit them to do so? Certainly not, if they know what they are about. And we believe they do, and will not permit the legislature to ruin our local schools, for that is what it practically amounts to.

Who is to take charge of the schools here in the absence of the superintendent or principal, the latter who has classes to teach? Forget it! You must not disrupt our present system with a plan that will leave but ruin in its wake. The present law was designed for the benefit of the rural districts. They need it, so do not now deprive them of it!

TELLS BANKS TO WAKE UP

(By Associated Press)

HONOLULU, T. H., Feb. 19.—Tetsuya Toyama, editor of a Japanese commercial publication here, in a recent issue attacked Japanese banks of Honolulu for their alleged system of shipping their money to Japan for investment instead of using it for the upbuilding of the territory where they do business.

Toyama's article was reprinted by the Nippon Jiji, a Japanese daily here, which supported the magazine editor's charges editorially and called upon Japanese banks to "wake up."

These are three Japanese banks operating here.
